

FoCT Training Programme held in Govt. Coconut Farm (Govt. of Chhattisgarh) Pamalwaya, Dist- Bijapur for the period from 22nd December to 27th December 2014

The Coconut Development Board DSP Farm Kondagaon organized six days residential training programme (FoCT) from 22nd December to 27th December 2014 at Govt. Coconut Farm (Govt. of Chhattisgarh) Pamalwaya, Dist- Bijapur in association with Department of Horticulture, District- Bijapur. The programme was inaugurated on 22.12.2014 by Shri N.S. Kushwaha, Assistant Director of Horticulture Bijapur. Total 20 trainees have participated in the training programme the trainees are mostly from surrounding villages of Naxal affected area of Dist- Bijapur. The training was as per the schedule of the Board starting from 6.30 in the morning to till evening. As per the routine of the programme two theory classes were conducted by the experts from different field such as horticulture, fisheries, Agriculture, Coconut cultivation technology, veterinary, poultry, forestry with special reference to medicinal; and aromatic plant followed by practical classes by the coordinator. The closing ceremony was planned with Chief Guest Shri Mohammad Qaiser Abdul Haque IAS DM & Collector on 27-12- 2014. The collector district Bijapur had appreciated the initiative taken by Coconut Development Board for organizing such programe in naxal affected area Shri.R.S.Sengar, Assistant Director CDB DSP Farm Kondagaon has requested the participants that after the training the trainees should assist the people of surrounding villages. Any assistant in respect of coconut and spices cultivation needed farmers can contact directly to the office of the Coconut Development Board. The function came to close with vote of thanks proposed by Shri N.S. Kushwaha Assistant Director of Horticulture, Dist- Bijapur

Group photos of FoCT Trainees with R.S.Sengar Assistant Director CDB and Shri N.S. Kushwaha Assistant Director of Horticulture

Mohammad Qaiser Abdul Haque IAS DM & Collector in center is being briefed about the FoCT by Shri Sengar Assistant Director of CDB DSP Farm Kondagaon