

FoCT Training programme held at DSP Farm Kondagaon from 23rd to 28th September 2013

The coconut Development Board DSP Farm Kondagaon organized six days residential training programme (FoCT) from 23rd to 28th September 2013. The programme was inaugurated by Shri N.S.Kushwaha, Assistant Director, Department of Horticulture Kondagaon. Total 20 trainees have participated in the training programme the trainees are from surrounding village of DSP Farm such as Kopabeda, Sambalpur, Kondagaon etc. The training was as per the schedule of the Board starting from 6.30 in the morning to till evening.

As per the routine of the programme two theory classes were taken by the experts from different field such as horticulture, fisheries, Agriculture, Coconut cultivation technology, forestry with special reference to medicinal; and aromatic plant followed by practical classes by the coordinators.

A field visit was also conducted at Jagdalpur, Krishi Vigyan Kendra where All India coordinated project for palm is situated. The participants could learn more about other crop of horticulture & Agriculture and mushroom cultivation was the new subject seen at Krishi Vigyan Kendra Jagdalpur.

The closing ceremony was planned with Chief Guest of Director of Horticulture Govt. of Chhattisgarh who visited of the Farm on 26th September 2013. Due to sudden meeting at Raipur called by State Election Commission Director Horticulture and District Collector could not visit the farm. The closing ceremony was conducted with the guest of Shri N.S. Kushwaha Assistant Director, Horticulture, Kondagaon who give away the certificate to the participants

Competition for participants

Morning Yoga and exercise

1st prize winner Shri Umesh Netam

Participants towards the practical classes

Dr. Agrawal Scientist IGKV Jagdalpur briefing about coconut research project at jagdalpur

Shri Dewangan, Fisheries Inspector is taking practical classes