

REPORT ON ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME HELD AT CDB INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY DURING 07.01.19 TO 11.01.19

One batch of Entrepreneurship Development Programme was conducted from 07.01.19 to 11.01.19 at CDB Institute of Technology, South Vazhakulam, Aluva. Twenty trainees nominated by CDB, Regional Office, Chennai participated in the training programme. The training programme commenced with registration of participants. On the first day (07.01.2019), Food Technologist welcomed the trainees and made a presentation on Coconut Industry in India - opportunities in Coconut Processing. In the afternoon session, Smt.Sumi.S.Nair, Microbiologist handled a session on 'Food Microbiology, GMP and hygiene aspects in food manufacturing'. On the second day (08.01.19), practical training on preparation and packaging of Coconut chips, coconut lemonade, coconut cookies and coconut chutney powder and coconut chocolate was conducted by Smt. Aneeta Joy Food Technologist.

On the third day (03.01.2019), practical training on preparation and packaging of products like coconut pickle, Tender Coconut Jam, Coconut jelly, coconut candy, coconut ladoo and Virgin Coconut Oil was conducted.

On the fourth day, sessions on Quality Standards and Quality Managements, Packaging and packaging commodities act, Neera and Neera based products was taken by Smt. Aneeta Joy Food Technologist. On the fifth day (11.01.19), Shri.Sreekumar Poduval, Processing Engineer handled sessions on Legal formalities for setting up a unit, Marketing strategies and business plan, leadership and communication skills, , Manpower management, Inventory and working capital management and establishment of enterprise- systematic approach. Dr.Vaishakhan.K.A, Food Safety Officer handled a session on 'Food Safety'. The program concluded with a valedictory session and distribution of certificates.

Photos of training program (07.01.19 – 11.01.19)

